

Jason Sherman

916-783-6262 telephone
jsherman@sroullaw.com

Practice Areas

Mr. Sherman is a partner in the Litigation Department of Sproul Trost LLP. His primary areas of practice include business and real estate litigation. Mr. Sherman's practice includes representation of commercial and residential real estate clients, including homeowners associations. He assists contractors, developers, common interest communities, businesses, and individuals with a wide variety of legal issues, including defending and prosecuting claims involving breach of contract, enforcement of association governing documents, escrow disputes, partnership disputes, negligence, fraud, construction defects, corporate governance, and title to real property. Additionally, Mr. Sherman represents his business clients on labor and employment law matters, including wage and hour claims, employment agreements, employee handbooks, independent contractor status issues, and Labor Code violations.

Mr. Sherman is a member of the State Bars of California and Washington, and he is a member of the Sacramento and Placer County Bar Associations. He is also a member of the Real Property, Employment, and Litigation Sections of the California State Bar. Mr. Sherman is admitted to practice before the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, and the United States District Court for the Central and Eastern Districts of California.

Education

Mr. Sherman obtained his undergraduate degree from the University of Washington, magna cum laude, and his juris doctor degree from Brigham Young University, cum laude.